

JUSTIN STREETER

Justin Streeter was born in Escondido, California but was raised in Texas. He took a hip hop class as a freshman in college and has been hooked ever since. Justin trained solely in hip hop for a year, but after going to his first dance convention, he fell in love with all facets of dance. He has received scholarship and accolades from The Pulse on Tour, West Coast Dance Explosion and many more. Thankful for getting to work under great artist such as Mark Kanemura, teaching. You can catch Justin on tour with The Streetz Dance Convention and Competition teaching hip hop and contemporary. His love for dance is strong and he looks forward to sharing it with the masses as much as possible!
